5. Dr. Damian Rosales was identified as a man serving as a liaison between the military plotters and certain "foreign" capitalists who are furnishing the funds, most of which are being used for bribery.

6. According to Jose Rafael Ulloa Morazan, an Osmin Aguirre supporter, the plot is well advanced. He said he was invited to join during the last week in February but refused. He added that good communications had been established between the prison and the outside, and that many people keep in contact with Aguirre.

7. The junta is presumably informed of the proposed coup, since the information is known to have been divulged to the student leader Ulises Flores, who undoubtedly would have passed it on to the civilian members of the junta. An unconfirmed report has been received that a number of Osmin Aguirre supporters including six Army officers, were captured on the night of 2 March.
